

"I love the history. If you can't live in Europe, this is the place to live. It has a soul. It's a living thing. The people who came here kept their cultures and made them a part of the fabric of New Orleans."

~ Regina Bertolino

"The similarity to where I grew up—Montreal, Canada: the weather, the comfort zone of a small city without a lot of traffic. I live about two blocks from my business here in the French Quarter. Besides, I have the opportunity to help people here."

~ Solomon Dawed

"New Orleans is alive with its traditions of all of the cultures that have lived here for years. It is both elegant and funky at the same time. I live in the heart of uptown where there is never a dull moment. Even sitting on the front porch can be fun."

~ Genevieve Liljeberg
